

XM has provided me with commercial free music, talk radio programs that I cannot get where I live. The traffic and weather channels are great too. Especially when you take a trip to a big city and have instant access to traffic and weather info. It's great! Please keep the traffic and weather on XM and all the other great programming they have to offer!